Mount Rainier, MD – On April 17, 2020, two owners of Mount Rainier businesses, Chucks Liquors and Party Time Liquors, donated a total of $4,000 towards the City's effort to provide support and relief for citizens affected by COVID-19. The donated money will assist the Mount Rainier CERT Team and the City in purchasing needed supplies to continue to assist Mount Rainier residents.

In addition to the monetary donations, 500 masks were donated with a commitment by the businesses to donate another 3,500 masks. These masks will be placed directly into the hands of Mount Rainier residents. Residents who are in need of a mask are asked to call 301-985-6580 and leave a message or email mrosario@mountrainierpd.org.

The City of Mount Rainier would like to extend its gratitude to the various organizations working alongside the City to aid Mount Rainier residents, and will continue to work to diligently to help those in need during these trying times.
